Learning Continuity Plan Part 2 for School Year 2021-2022

April 12, 2021

Dear Parents / Guardians,

Greetings of good health and peace!

As mentioned in our Learning Continuity Plan Circular 1 for SY 2021-2022 sent to you last January 29, here are more information for your guidance.

Again, we would like to reiterate the following important improvements:

Longer and enhanced Online Synchronous Discussions and more time for students to accomplish module activities and assessments with teacher and classmates

- Online Synchronous Discussions for all nonacademic areas of study
- Saturday classes, previously required by the Department of Education, will now be integrated in the 5-day class week.
- More online co-curricular and extracurricular activities, allowing for more social interactions outside of academic classes

I. MODE OF DELIVERY AND START OF THE SCHOOL YEAR

The mode of delivery is still online distance learning. To date, the Department of Education has not yet finalized the school calendar for the coming school year. However, MDM will officially begin its School Year in July.
